CONDITIONS OF USE FOR PARKING PERMITS

The Parking Permit is issued under the various regulations, bye laws and orders relating to car parks and the Council accept no liability or responsibility for personal injury, (whether fatal or otherwise) or for loss or damage to property unless caused by negligence of the Council or its employees.

The Parking Permit is valid for use in the car parks specified overleaf (The Council reserves the right to amend this list at any time). It must be clearly displayed on the left hand side of the windscreen. A.V.D.C. Parking Services section must be informed of any change of vehicle. Failure to display the Parking Permit makes the user liable to the normal parking charges and a ticket must be purchased.

FAILURE TO DISPLAY EITHER A VALID PARKING PERMIT OR PARKING TICKET MAY RESULT IN THE ISSUE OF A PENALTY CHARGE NOTICE

ANY VEHICLE PARKED OUTSIDE A DEFINED PARKING BAY OR IN ANY SPECIFICALLY RESERVED BAY WILL BE SUBJECT TO A PENALTY CHARGE EVEN IF A CURRENT PARKING PERMIT IS DISPLAYED.

The Council cannot guarantee that a parking space will always be available.

AMENDMENT/REFUNDS

If you change your vehicle please contact our office on 01296 585381 and return the permit immediately. Please note new permits will not be issued if the old permit is not returned.

If you no longer require the Permit\Electronic Card please return it to us as soon as possible. If you require a refund the permit must be returned with bank details (bank name, sort code and account no.) as all refunds are made by BACS, and will be calculated on full months remaining and is subject to a £15 administration fee. When paying by Direct Debit through your Bank/Building Society you must inform them to cancel this arrangement.

If a Parking Permit is stolen it must be reported to Parking Services immediately giving a crime number.
Lost parking permits will only be replaced after an administration charge of £15.00 has been paid.

If you need to use a courtesy vehicle please contact our office as soon as possible on 01296 585381.
