2004 Design Awards

Top Merit Award

Huf House, Chearsley Road, a contemporary post and beam and glass, two-storey, pre-fabricated home, designed by Peter Huf of Huf Haus, Leatherhead.

Top Merit Award

A contemporary new room extension to a mid 18th century thatched cottage in Ickford, with a traditional hand-made oak-framed barn construction, designed by John Pace of Roderick James Architects, Totnes.

Top Merit Award

Extension and remodelling of 1960's bungalow in Cheasley Road to create a two storey family home, designed by West Waddy ADP, Abingdon.

Certificate of Quality

Rose Cottage, Ford, a renovation of a Grade II Listed thatched witchert building the majority of which was undertaken by the owner.

Certificate of Quality

Greyhound Court, Winslow, twelve flats on the site of a former building yard in the conservation area, designed using local traditional materials and finishes, developed and built and by W E Black Ltd, Chesham.

Certificate of Quality

30 & 30A High Street & 1-6 Elms Court Greyhound Lane, Winslow. Demolition of derelict office building and construction of two houses and six flats to provide low cost housing, developer David Bogle of High Town Praetorian, Hemel Hempstead, with AT4 Architects and Jarvis Construction.

Certificate of Quality

Lyell House, Thornton, a new dwelling house built to blend with its village setting, designed by I S Mills Associates, Bicester.

Certificate of Quality

The Kya, Ludgershall, a new dwelling house on the site of an old cottage, designed to relate to the surrounding cottages and landscape, designed by I S Mills Associates, Bicester.

Certificate of Quality

7 & 8 Coleshill, Chilton, two new houses in a village setting on a hillside site, built for the Aubrey Fletcher Estate, designed by Ian Slater, Thame.