AVDC have an obligation to make information available to the public under the Environment information Regulation 2004 (EIR). This is why decision notices and most planning documents are publicly available and easily accessible free of charge online at Quick Map Search.

As an alternative to your rights under the EIR we can provide an enhanced service for which you will be charged. If you wish to pay for our enhanced service please see details below. We will assume that you are aware of and do not wish to access the information yourself for free and accept that the information is not being provided under EIR.

Most of our documents are available online but in order to comply with data protection some plans, including comments are removed once an application is determined. If there is a document you are interested in that is not available, please email devcon@aylesburyvaledc.gov.uk and we will arrange to make this available to you.

Planning Enhanced Document Charges.

If you choose to use and pay for our enhanced service we will;

- Respond in 5 working days
- Locate, Identify and copy the required documents
- Send them to you in the preferred format (email or paper)
- Advise you when the documents have been sent

Enhanced copy document charges

For each application;

£19 for the first A4/A3 plus £1.00 for each additional side up to a maximum of 30 sides. Quotes for larger volumes of printing are available on request by emailing us at devcon@aylesburyvaledc.gov.uk

Please provide a contact email address or telephone number. You can pay online by accessing www.aylesburyvaledc.gov.uk/planningpayment
