The pub supports a darts team that plays in the Bicester League, an Aunt Sally team that plays in the Oxford League and a Quiz team that also plays in an Oxford League.

The pub hosts regular quiz nights and occasional live music. Oakley United Football Club who run three teams, use the pub for socialising and refreshment after weekly training sessions and any home fixtures. The pub offers pensioner lunches on two days each week which are popular and help to combat social isolation amongst older village residents.
