

MEDIATION CAN HELP YOU

Talk things over with someone who...

...does not advise, judge or blame.

...will meet with you during the day or evening.

...will help you and your neighbour work out what you want to change

Mediators are volunteers from the local community who have been trained to work with community problems.

Mediation Buckinghamshire is registered under the Data Protection Acts.
You can be provided with the data held about you.
A complaints procedure is available on request.

WHAT HAPPENS IN MEDIATION?

Two mediators visit everyone involved to hear about the problem.

The mediators help you all work out what you want to do to change the situation.

The mediators arrange a joint meeting if you all want this to happen

The mediators will help you agree a solution for the future.

FREE - to local residents.

CONFIDENTIAL - we do not tell other people the details of your problem.

INDEPENDENT - we are a charity not part of the council or any other authority.

IMPARTIAL - mediators want to hear all points of view and will not take sides.

VOLUNTARY - you decide how far you want to take mediation.

WHEN DOES MEDIATION WORK?

Talking to mediators can help with:

Communication

Noise

Parking

Fences, hedges & boundaries

Rubbish

Pets

Children

Shared space
